Citizens of Allenstown, With Your Cooperation

Our local forest fire organization will be able to continue its splendid record during the coming year, our town will be spared costly fire losses and suppression expenditures.

We were fortunate last year because you were careful, complied so willingly with forest fire regulations and consulted with our local warden before undertaking any burning on your property.

This cooperative spirit is more essential this year because, as you well know, conditions in the blowdown sections will be much more critical than last year. Material will be more highly inflammable and fire occurring in these areas will be more difficult to control.

For everyone's guidance the following suggestions are made.

1. DON'T burn brush or other debris in or near woodlands, or where fire may be communicated to such land, once the snow has left the ground, without first securing written permission from the forest fire warden.
   Violation of this requirement makes the responsible party liable to a. A fine not to exceed $500.00 or imprisonment of not more than one year or both.
   b. The town for expenses incurred by the warden in attending or extinguishing such fire.
   c. Damages to abutting owners if fire runs upon abutter's property.
2. DON'T drop or throw from any vehicle while same is upon a public highway or private way and DON'T drop, throw or otherwise deposit on or near woodlands any lighted match, cigar, cigarette, live ashes or any other substance liable to cause a fire.

Violation of these prohibitions penalizes whoever is found guilty with a fine of not more than $25.00.

3. DON'T fail to promptly notify your local warden of any fires you see.

Because some New Hampshire citizens refused or failed to comply with necessary regulations in 1939, they were obliged to pay the costs of fire suppression and in some instances appear in court.

A little team work will be most beneficial to all of us and save you and your town much trouble and expense. Good citizenship dictates it. Good judgment demands it.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board of Allenstown:

In my sixth annual report attention is given not only to the customary activities of the schools but also to new obligations and responsibilities which changing conditions require of an efficient school system.

Organization and Instruction

The retention of your entire staff of trained and experienced teachers has contributed to efficient instruction and to that cooperation between the teachers and pupils which gives to a school the atmosphere of a larger and well directed family.

By the introduction of correlated curriculum activities in the primary grades and the enrichment of experiences through observation trips and the use of social studies readers in the intermediate grades, a more intelligent approach is made possible to the social sciences —geography, history, and civics—in the upper grades.

Oral reading for skill and comprehension is continued in the intermediate grades for those children who have a limited use of English. Much silent reading is done in all grades above the second year. In all grades each pupil is supplied weekly with a social science and current events paper adapted to his particular grade. "My Weekly Reader" is used in the primary and intermediate grades, and "Our Times" in the two grammar school grades. These papers supply much practical and purposeful reading and prepare a foundation for interesting and valuable discussions. The Metropolitan Achievement Tests, which have been given to the pupils annually since 1934 show that recent classes are making definite improvement in the social studies.

"Next to the spoken language, music is the most universal means of self-expression." Instruction in music seeks four objectives. First, that from singing experiences the pupils shall derive satisfaction and pleasure; second, that pupils shall come to know and appreciate beautiful songs and compositions; third, that each individual shall acquire an increasing amount of skill in singing; and fourth, that the pupil shall learn to use singing as a medium of self-expression. Under the direction of your music supervisor, Mrs. Gale, these four objectives have been emphasized.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

For the past two years Allenstown has attained the highest attendance record of the six districts in this Union. This record indicates that good physical conditions have received attention Four factors have contributed to good health: (1) Classrooms adequately and evenly heated, (2) regular and systematic physical training for both boys and girls of the upper grades, (3) the regular participation by all pupils in out-of-door activities during noon and recess periods, and (4) the provision of hot lunches for all pupils who remain during the noon hour.

In common with the other public schools of the Union you are fortunate in having the services of an efficient school nurse. The results of her work contribute much to Allenstown's good school record. It is to be hoped that the services of a school nurse may soon be made available for all school children in Allenstown.

The use this year of a school transportation bus, enclosed by glass and adequately heated, adds definitely to the health and comfort of a dozen children.

For nearly a year personal observation and study of child protection on our highways have been made by your principal, the superintendent, and members of the school board. Both the national organization, sponsored by the American Automobile Association, and the system of the Manchester city schools were considered.

With the co-operation of your police department and the generous assistance of Mr. George H. Griffin, of the Manchester school board, and Officer Provost of the Manchester traffic police, the Allenstown safety patrol system was inaugurated last November. Older pupils, as patrol leaders, are responsible for individual groups of younger pupils from the time these leave the school grounds until they arrive at their homes. It is the duty of a leader to keep his group on a sidewalk, direct the group at street crossings and report any violation of patrol regulations. The leaders in turn are under observation by the local police who may report any leader to the school authorities for lax discipline or for commendable leadership. A feature appreciated by several parents is the prompt return of children home from school with a consequent reduction in the time of exposure to the hazards of traffic.

Special Activities

In the annual spelling contest, held in Hooksett last June, Allenstown was represented by Betty Morency of Grade VII, Lucille Berube of Grade VI, and Garrett Freeman of Grade III. This team in competition with five others attained a score of 280 out a possible 300.

During the past year more than thirty women have attended evening classes in sewing, weaving, and cooking. During vacation their instructor, Miss Isabell Barnett completed special courses in adult education work at Keene Teachers College. Class work was resumed in October. Sewing classes meet in the Allenstown school on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. Wednesday evening is given to instruction in cooking. Miss Barnett adapts the instruction to the individual's particular problem in sewing or cooking. This makes the work of immediate and practicable value in the home of every pupil.

It is evident that changing economic and home conditions are emphasizing a demand that adult education be made a permanent part of the public school system.

Direction and assistance in vocational guidance has become a recognized function of many high schools and colleges. Yet the school life of numerous individuals ends with the grammar school. To these and to others, who enter but do not complete a high school course, adult classes should not only supply practical instruction but in many instances should co-operate with local employers in the placing of individuals in industry. In this field the public schools of Allenstown face a new obligation.

In Conclusion

Through the assistance of your principal and teachers and the school nurse a personal record of every pupil who graduates from your school is made a part of the permanent files in the superintendent's office.

For the first time this year we are attempting to follow up those graduates who are not in school and whom we may assist in vocational placement. Today the duty of the community does not end with the presentation of a diploma.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE H. HARMON,

Superintendent of Schools.
